

HIDDEN GEMS Sing Brussels!

Thursday 9 May (evening) to
Sunday 12 May (afternoon) 2024

Paolo Margari unsplash

JP Bland

Come and sing with us in some wonderful locations and acoustic spaces in central Brussels!

Hidden Gems is a choir with a difference that meets to sing inspiring music in special and unusual places across Europe.

Run by experienced British choral composers Jeremy Avis and Rebecca Askew, Hidden Gems brings amateur singers together in harmony to rehearse and perform uplifting and poetic music that is as satisfying to sing as it is fun to learn.

For further information and to book, please visit www.goal-mouth.org/hidden-gems-brussels

Colin Barker

HIDDEN GEMS Sing Brussels!

What's included?

- 6 engaging singing sessions in the stylish and well-equipped Studio Empain, centrally located opposite the Place de la Liberté
- Opportunities to socialise and meet other singers from the UK, Brussels and elsewhere, including a first night drinks reception
- A guided walking tour related to our repertoire led by renowned author of The 500 Hidden Secrets of Brussels, Derek Blyth
- A final walking-and-singing tour on Sunday afternoon at which your local friends and family can hear our voices soar in these wonderful spaces:
 - The Horta Hall at Bozar
 - Musical Instrument Museum (MIM) by the Mont des Arts
 - Pavilion of Human Passions in the Cinquantenaire Park
 - And some hidden gems with stories to tell

No singing experience is necessary. All music is taught by ear in English and a booklet of songs is included.

Book early to avoid disappointment!

Early bird discount (till 31.01.24): £280/ €325

Price: £320 / €370

www.goal-mouth.org/hidden-gems-brussels

